Charlestown High School

CHS Core Values:

Recognition and Celebration of Diversity
High Expectations, High Support
Collaboration and Community

NOTHING IS IMPOSSIBLE

Message from your Principal

Dear Charlestown High School Class of 2018,

One of my favorite moments every school year is standing up there on the graduation stage, shaking your hand and handing you your diploma. It's the culmination of so much hard work, of all your time, effort, and dedication. Our school has grown a lot in these past few years, and I think it's important to reflect on the journey we've made together.

As the principal of Charlestown High School, I'm learning too. One of the things I've taken away from the Class of 2018 is the importance of student voice. All of you have been such strong advocates for student life at CHS. Whether it's expanding the opportunities in elective classes, creating better Pep Rallies, developing peer mediation, or celebrating and recognizing our school's diversity, the Class of 2018 has been committed to making our school a place where students can thrive.

Student voice is so important to our school community. It's important because it allows all of us -- teachers, administrators, and every student -- to think about the different ways that students can be successful and can shine both in the classroom and beyond it. The Class of 2018 has been leading the way in showing us what success can look like.

I'm proud of and inspired by all of you. I can't wait to see how you take what you've learned here at CHS and continue to succeed in life after high school -- in college, in future careers, in all the opportunities that are out there for you. Continue to lead the way, Class of 2018.

- Mr. Thomas

Hey class of 2018!! I send you all the positive energy, light, love, and peace to get you through this tough world! I'm sure that CHS has prepared you to navigate in such a way that you are ready to be leaders, critical thinkers, forever wanting to learn and change the world. I wish you all the best!! Read! Read! Read! Travel! Travel! Travel! Think! Think! Think! Respect! Respect! Respect! Love! Love! Love! You can be anything/anyone! I believe it! So should you! Get your glo' up on and fly high!

--Mx.Thai ;)

To my CASE class of 2018 seniors-- I could not be more proud of the thoughtful, kind, mature young people you have become over your 4 years at Charlestown. When I think back to the old days on 5th floor red side... you've come such a long way... and I'm really excited to see what impact you have on your world. Come back to visit us! We will miss you!!

- Ms. Koehler

You were my first class ever and you've grown into such wonderful people. Congratulations on graduating! Go do amazing things and then come back to tell us about it.

- Mr. Grimes

"Be the change, you wish to see." - Ghandi

- Mr. Miller

Go make the world a better place than the way you came into it. You're the only ones that truly know how to do it.

- Ortega

Congratulations, Seniors (not senior citizens)!

May you look back on your time at CHS fondly and know that we always want what's best for you! Always, always strive to do your best (no matter what anyone else does or says) in all things: work, love, friendships, family, etc. Please keep in touch and let us know what path life has taken you! I'm thankful to have had many of you in my life!

- Dr. Ng

F. Scott Fitzgerald said, 'There are no second acts in American lives.' He was correct; there are third, fourth, fifth, ... many acts to the narrative of our lives. You only need to take the chance in order to live these parts of your life.

- Frost

My beloveds. What an honor it has been...

You will likely forget my yelling "and we're learning!" in the hallways... You'll likely forget my jumping around MCing assemblies and laughing with you in the hallways. You will forget so much as you grow and start your adult lives.

However, I hope you never forget how amazing you are. How powerful your voices are. How much society needs you. You are revolutionaries. Never underestimate how powerful you are and what responsibilities you have as citizens of the world. Remember to conduct yourself with kindness, always. For we never truly know what someone else is going through.

All my love,

Ms. Parker

If they doubt you, come back 10x harder. You can either let a challenge defeat you OR you can let it empower you! #KLK

- Ms. Santos

Dear Grasshoppers,

Thanks so much for learning with me this year. Remember--always own your intelligence, carry your excellence with you where ever you go, and take time to read some great books.

Let me know where life takes you!

Always, Ms. Wright

Taking the stairs is always better than taking the elevator.

- Mr. Johnson

It's been a delight to watch you grow and change this year. You have within you everything you need to continue on your path to success. May you also experience good luck on your journey.

- Ms. Piacitelli

Be your best self. Don't hide behind the fear that you can't and definitely don't hide behind the fear that you can. Being your best gives the people around you the opportunity to be their best as well.

Congratulations on your success and all the best in your future!
- Mr. Leiper

Class of 2018, it's been such a privilege to work with you! Your collective creativity, critical consciousness and compassion shaped CHS and will shape our world as you go out and do your work in it. Love and strength!

- Ms. Tuller

Good luck and enjoy college life!

- Dr. Mustapha Benaoui

Congratulations to the Class of 2018! We will miss you!

- Mr. Pai

At last the long awaited day arrived, your high school graduation. There are no words to describe what it feels like. It was not easy because there were many challenges and sacrifices, starting with getting up so early and adapting to many changes, among other things. All this is part of the learning process, it is what prepares you to take on other challenges and responsibilities in your life. Many times maybe you felt that you could not do it anymore, ready to give up. It is normal to feel that way, BUT YOU DID IT! I congratulate you on this achievement. You make me proud. Now you start one more stage in your life and I wish you the best. REMEMBER, even if you feel tired, exhausted or ready to give up, think about the future that awaits you. All sacrifice and hard work, definitely pays off. Believe in yourself and always do your best to achieve your goals and much more. Good luck and a lot of success! ¡Suerte y éxito!!!
With all my heart, Ivis Romero.

CONGRATS seniors!! So proud of your work this year. Good luck with this next step in your lives, it's been great working with you all. Reading your stories through your college essays, hearing about your aspirations in our meetings, struggling through financial aid requirements together and planning events for you have been the highlight of my year! Please always consider me a resource and keep in touch. You're all gonna rock it! :)
- Ms. N

"You're supposed to be wherever you are- right now, in this moment. Don't fault yourself for not being anywhere other than 'here'. Focus on right now. Focus on today. Make the best out of everything you're already involved with. The future will slowly present itself as you begin to appreciate all that you have and all that you are in this moment. Please, don't rush life. Anything that is meant for you, will always be.. eventually" - Reyna Biddy

Seniors 2018- For once, stop and thank yourselves for how far you've come. Practice patience at every given chance, and give yourselves the credit you deserve. You are going to do amazing things out there, and I am rooting for you all.

- Ms. Silver

Congratulations Seniors!!
Don't let your life be "Boron" after graduation, carry the CHS Sprit with you even after you "Argon" !

- Ms. Serva

You will always hold a special place in my heart as my first official students! Thank you for all the laughs and thoughtful moments. I'm so proud of all of you and hope you come back to visit!

- Ms. Perez

Whenever you feel as if you're not where you want to be ... look back at the hard work and dedication you gave to achieve this life goal... it won't be easy but never give up on yourself and always maintain true to YOU... don't let anything or anyone hold you back from your happiness and success... best of luck now and forever with love,
